Case No. 1:18-mj-282

Filed Under Seal

ORDER

The United States has submitted an application pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b), requesting that the Court issue an Order commanding Google, Inc., an electronic communication service provider and/or a remote computing service, not to notify any person (including the subscribers and customers of the account(s) listed in the Summons) of the existence of the attached Summons until further order of the Court.

The Court determines that there is reason to believe that notification of the existence of the attached warrant will seriously jeopardize the investigation or unduly delay a trial, including by giving targets an opportunity to flee or continue flight from prosecution, destroy or tamper with evidence, change patterns of behavior, intimidate potential witnesses, or endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. See 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED under 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b) that Google, Inc., shall not disclose the existence of the attached Summons, or this Order of the Court, to the listed subscriber or to any other person for a period of 180 days from the date of this Order, unless and until otherwise authorized to do so by the Court, except that Google, Inc., may disclose the attached Summons to an attorney for Google, Inc., for the purpose of receiving legal advice.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the application and this Order are sealed for 180 days, or until otherwise ordered by the Court.
